

Ammunition Policy

Federal law requires buyers of rifle and shotgun ammunition to be at least 18 years of age.

Federal law requires buyers of handgun ammunition to be at least 21 years of age.

In most locations, an FFL is not required for purchasing ammunition. Please be sure to check your local laws before ordering.

It is the buyers responsibility to check to make sure the ammunition ordered will work the firearm it is intended to be used in. Ammunition is not returnable under any circumstances.
